VANCOUVER.—The following news items are from the Register of yesterday:

The Catholic library in this city lately received an addition of two hundred and fifty volumes which are now ready for distribution.

We learn from Mr. Joseph Brant, that his son, Louis Philip Brant, successfully passed examination at West Point Military Academy. We believe he will be an honor to Washington Territory and the United States.

Messrs. Levi Farnsworth, Silas D. Maxon, Louis Meyer and Charles Lee, comprise a party which left this city on Tuesday for the purpose of examining the practicability of the route by "Fobinter's Pass," through the Louis river and Kaima mountains for the passage of a railroad.

At an election held by the incorporators of the Columbia Railroad Company, the following gentlemen were elected to constitute a Board of Trustees for the year ending 31st of May, 1870: Joseph Brant, George W. Durgin, M. R. Hathaway, Louis Meyer and A. A. Shasbeu. The officers are: President, A. A Shasbeu; Secretary Julius Suiter; Treasurer, George W. Durgin.

The case of the Territory of Washington against Thos. J. Fletcher and his sons Eli, Arthur and John, and Mason Gibbon, for a charge of assault with intent to murder Louis Van Vleet and the Coffeys, on the 31st of May last, came before Justice Smith on Monday, the 12th inst., conducted by John F. Caples for the prosecution and Judge Smith, of Portland, and J. D. Potter for defendant. The case was under investigation during Monday and Tuesday, decision rendered Wednesday morning, discharging Thos. J. Fletcher and his son Eli Fletcher, and holding the others to appear in the Justice's court on the 26th of July, at 9 o'clock A. M., to answer to the simple charge of assault and battery. The evidence clearly justified the Fletcher boys in defending their father on the occasion of the shooting affray.

EDUCATIONAL ITEMS.—The quarterly examination in the Portland Academy and Female Seminary, will begin on Monday, July 26th, and will continue through Tuesday, the 27th. Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock, exercises of the Graduating Class, and an address by Rev. F. S. Knight, of Salem. Wednesday evening, July 28th, beginning at 8 o'clock precisely, a musical and literary entertainment.

The Trustees of the Vancouver Seminary, at their annual meeting on Monday last, unanimously elected Rev Clark Smith to the principalship of the Institution for the ensuing year.

A correspondent of the Advocate, writing from Wilbur July 9th, says of the Umpqua Academy: "This institution has just closed another of its most prosperous years. Competent judges who have visited the school in its daily [illegible] and in the examinations, are unanimous in their [illegible] that the school well deserves its high reputation. The present Principal, Rev. J. G. Deardorff, is re-elected for the ensuing year. Ample apartments are now provided for the accommodation of the school. Arrangements are made for boarding young ladies in the family of the Principal, in the new building. The next term will commence August 23, 1869.

THE SHOOTING OF A. J. REMINGTON.—The Register of Friday gives the following particulars of the accidental shooting of Mr. A. J. Remington: "He was accidentally shot in the neck by George David on Wednesday evening last, under the following circumstances: A party [illegible] hunting of Remington, David and some others [illegible] on a deer hunt, separating with a view of completing the circuit of a wood. Fatigued by the walk, [illegible] seated himself on a log to rest. Approaching from the rear, David's attention was attracted by [illegible] red shirt and bare head. Being dusk, he took the object before him for a deer and fired, the ball striking Remington in the back of the neck, a little to the left of the center, tearing the cords of the neck and cheek in a frightful manner. Dr. I. L. Boise was immediately called and dressed the wound. As dangerous wound, they are entertained that [illegible] serious consequences will ensue than a partial paralysis of the face. Mr. Remington is an artist by profession, and formerly resided in Portland, but [illegible] to this county about a year ago, and is held in high esteem by the community. No blame whatever can be attached to the [illegible] because of this sad calamity.

A PERSONAL MATTER.—At the request of Dr. Davenport, we publish the following communication, which fully explains itself:

PORTLAND, July 16, 1869.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

In your paper of the 15th inst., you state—"Dr. Chapman who is attending on the Captain of the bark Onward has given out that his patient is convalescent," etc. I think, sir, this cannot be true, because immediately on the arrival of the bark Onward I was called upon to attend Captain ——, and at his request have been the sole [illegible] of him—if and crew since, and should certainly not have tolerated the interference of a third party [illegible] my patients and myself.

The [illegible] only after my first visit to the ship, I made a report of her condition and the sickness on board (as required by ordinance) to the Mayor and City Physician, [illegible] frequently met Dr. Chapman on the [illegible], but have not been advised as to the [illegible] of his visits. If employed by the Mayor or Council, I [illegible] for a moment suppose that they [illegible] an [illegible] without [illegible] my legitimate business.

Respectfully, I. A. DAVENPORT.

RAILROAD INTELLIGENCE.—The subjoined items are from the Alta, of:

Mr. [illegible] was expected to reach San Francisco on the 8th inst. Dr. E. Thomas, of California, will accompany him to Oregon. We may look for these by the next [illegible].

Rev. S. V. Blakeslee, Congregational minister from [illegible], has been preaching in various places on the [illegible].

The Christian (Campbellite) Church at Eugene City was dedicated on Sunday, July 4th.

The vote on Lay Delegation for Tillamook circuit, as we learn by letter from Bro. Howard, the [illegible], stood six for, and seven against Lay Delegation.

David Newman, with [illegible] liberality, proposes to donate ten acres of land near the center of the Silverton circuit, to the M. E. Church, for the purpose of a camp ground. It is a beautiful location and will doubtless be accepted.

Rev. Marvin, of the M. E. Church, South, preached an able and [illegible] sermon at the camp-meeting near Eugene City. The meeting was greatly [illegible] on Saturday and Sunday nights by two fine [illegible].

FROM THE DALLES.—The Mountaineer furnishes the following:

The [illegible] of this city are having a vacation of about [illegible] commencing last Monday.

Grain and flour are [illegible] an upward tendency. At Walla Walla flour has raised one dollar on the barrel, and at the Dalles it has advanced from one dollar to one and a half on the barrel.

Mr. H. C. Nye, late of Princeton, Colusa county, California, and father-in-law of Dr. B. W. Mitchell, of this city, arrived in our town on Monday last, bringing with him a band of fine blooded short-horn Durham cattle of the [illegible] imported stock.

Mr. Bonsall returned from the Mount Hood ditch on Tuesday, and informed us that when he left the men were at work on the [illegible] about a hundred yards of the upper end of it, and that they would have it finished and the water running in it by the latter part of this week.

HOW CREDIT.—For once, and almost the first instance on record, a California paper—the Bulletin—gives Oregon due credit. That paper of the 9th says: "There seems to be a fair export demand for Oregon salmon, as in some cases. An invoice of 200 cs has just been shipped to Australia by the S. Aymar, and another of the same to New York by the Contest. Shipments to the Atlantic port are now made quite frequently, in large quantities and with satisfactory results. Oregon salmon, handsomely packed, compare favorably, with those put up in the best markets in the world. We are glad to know that they have been so successfully introduced into the Eastern markets." That sounds refreshing, after so long a course of persistent and careful ignoring of Oregon and Oregon productions. To be just, however, we must say that the credit given, should be divided with Washington Territory.

SCARCITY OF MONEY.—The tables made up from statements furnished by the books of Wells, Fargo & Co., at San Francisco, show that the [illegible] receipts of coin and bullion, for the first half of 1869, foot up $1,949,808 [illegible] $1,976,614 in first six months of 1868, and $1,368, in first six months of 1867. It will be seen that the North Pacific coast, which has furnished most of these sums, has done nearly as well this year as last. But, while in 1867 the shipment of coin was only $77,511, and in 1868 it was $478,312, this year it amounts to $704,— [illegible] over double. The misses have furnished prodigiously less of dust and bullion, leaving the coin [illegible] to furnish the balance of the aggregate. This is hard money in the commercial and agricultural circles [illegible] The cause which led to it have [illegible] to do with the fact.

READING BY MR. APPLEGATE.—Mr. H. L. Applegate will [illegible] at Philharmonic Hall this evening, taking for his subject: The trip up the Columbia river with [illegible] Excursionists—the falls at Celilo, and incidents and remin[illegible] connected therewith—meeting [illegible] Train at the Cascades a considerable [illegible] of the man and his [illegible] with an offset against his claims for the Presidency, admission, one dollar. These [illegible] matters upon which Mr. Applegate will talk in a very interesting manner and we advise Train's admirers and [illegible] everybody else to go and hear him. As a humorist—we take it that a part of the lecture will be in a humorous vein—Mr. Applegate is inimitable; as a critic he will make many a breach through Mr. Train's [illegible].

COMMISSION ON IMMIGRATION APPOINTED.—Mayor Gold, at the late immigration meeting, was elected to be the Chairman of a committee appointed by him, whose duty it should be to report a plan of organization. The [illegible] was not then appointed, the Chairman [illegible] to consult more fully with the friends of the [illegible]. Yesterday, he handed us the following list of the gentlemen who will, beside himself, compose the [illegible]: Hon. H. W. Corbett, Henry Failing, Col. W. W. Chapman, W. S. Ladd and L. H. Lewis. These [illegible] are desired to [illegible] ble at Ladd & Tilton's bank, on Monday evening next to consider of the matters for which they were appointed.

COME AND GONE.—George Francis Train, the champion [illegible] catcher of America, arrived from the Dalles yesterday afternoon, went to the telegraph office and started the lightning to striking in various directions, announcing his great [illegible] and future comings in, and then started for Oregon City in company with Dr. Loryea. He went up, with the expectation of lecturing at that place last evening. He will go on to Salem to-day. We, for one, have seen the last of George Francis Train. He has come in among us like a long-tailed comet, and goes out again without having lost a single inch of his many brain. Vale, Train.

THE MINES OF LEWIS RIVER.—The Register in noticing [illegible] item about the discovery of gold in the mountains about 35 miles from Vancouver, says: "The diggings are known to be on Canyon creek, a tributary of Lewis river. The gold shown us was of the finest quality, and worth not less than $19 per ounce. 'Old Texas,' [illegible] fame, Joseph Puddleford and Jacob Thompson, all [illegible] of twenty years experience, compose the [illegible]. We expect to be able to give more particular [illegible] as to the extent and character of the reported [illegible] in our next."

NOTICE.—The Trustees of the Unitarian Church have granted their Pastor a vacation extending over five Sundays to the last of August. There will be no regular service after to-morrow for that period. The Sunday School will be continued under the charge of Mr. Burrage.

Service to-morrow morning and evening. Subjects: "The present life as emphasized by Christianity;" "The Hope of Heaven."

WEST SIDE RAILROAD.—We were informed, yesterday, that the West Side Railroad Company have workmen engaged along the line of the road, putting the ranges in order digging wells, etc., as if work were to be resumed shortly. It was also rumored—but with what degree of truth we have no means of knowing—that a contract has been effected with responsible parties to go on with the building of the road. We sincerely hope that the report is well founded.

TASTES DO DIFFER.—The Local of the Herald says he visited the place we mentioned the other morning as strewn with "dead vermin, reeking piles of decaying matter, and divers things most unsightly," and that he found nothing offensive to the smell. Well well! people have different tastes, for "God hath made them so," and "what may be one man's bane, may be another's meat."

COMBINATION TOOL.—We notice that a supply of Mr John Nestor's patent combination weatherboard hook has been received here, from the manufacturer at the east. This is an ingenious and very convenient combination of the hook with a fluid level, graduated rule, marking knife and gauge, and is, withal, an exceedingly handsome tool. J. H. Barrett advertises them for sale.

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—At 10 o'clock this morning Mr A. B. Richardson will offer for sale, for the executors of the estate of George Bottler, deceased, lot 5 in block 9, in Couch's Addition, fronting on North Front street. Also lot 1 in block 8, on which stands the Globe Hotel, and a part of the Blackistone land claim. Mr. R. will also sell lots 7 and 8 in block 135, with cottage, etc.

THE PORTLAND YACHT CLUB adopted sailing rules at their meeting last evening, which they propose to have published at the earliest opportunity. Next Saturday at 4 o'clock P. M. set for the next regatta match. Start from foot of Yamhill street, sail down river round buoy moored off Bone Yard; then up river round buoy moored off foot of Rose' Island, then back to place of starting.

OATS.—The San Francisco Commercial Herald of the 9th admits that the receipts at that city, of oats from Oregon, have been so large as to prevent speculation by buyers who, early in the season, tried to monopolise the California crop. Thus, practically, Oregon has controlled the oats market through the entire harvest year.

DELINQUENT.—C. A. Westfall, Treasurer of Washington county, is reported delinquent in the sum of $607. Being unable to account for the money, he has resigned. He has property which it is said will make good the loss; and besides, his securities are ample, so there is no danger of any loss falling on the county.

MATINEE.—Mr. Bates and wife will give a matinee at Oro Fino, at 2 o'clock this afternoon, on which occasion they will play the beautiful comedy of "A Morning Call," and the laughable farce of "A Conjugal Lesson," in each of which Mrs. Bates will sing a beautiful ballad.

ORO FINO THEATER TO-NIGHT.—This evening there will be another Drawing Room entertainment by Mr. and Mrs. Bates, at Oro Fino Theater. The bill is "Delicate Ground" and "A Conjugal Lesson." The two pieces will afford a rich entertainment.

EARLY PREPARATIONS.—We learn from the Unionist that a large quantity of hay is already being drawn and stored in the barns on the State Fair ground, to be used during Fair week. Several horses are also being trained for exhibition this fall.

AN EDITOR ON THE SICK LIST.—Capt. Adams of the Register, is confined to his bed by reason of a severe attack of rheumatism and fever. He is under the kind care of the Sisters of Charity, who are bestowing every needful attention upon him.

SPECIAL ATTENTION is invited to the sale of real estate, this morning, by Mr. Richardson—corner of Third and Montgomery streets. This property has on it a comfortable cottage, with outbuildings, etc.—a good homestead property.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Any party knowing the address of the Rev. Parsons and of Lucius O'Brien or Deloshus, will oblige by communicating it to the Advocate office, or to Mr. W. McCrae, Customs, New Westminster, B. C.

RELIGIOUS NOTICES.—Bishop Morris is expected to preach in St. Stephen's Chapel, corner of Madison and Fourth streets, on Sunday morning. Seats free.

RELIGIOUS NOTICES.—Rev. E. C. Anderson will continue his course of sermons next Sunday, July 18th, at 11 o'clock A. M. Subject, The Church.

THE LIVE YANKEE.—This bark was towed down the river, yesterday, by the steamer Ranger. She is to load with lumber for San Francisco.

EVERY DAY, at No. 107 Front street, one door above McCormick's, you can see KANE'S CONDENSED SOAP wash without rubbing.

G. F. TRAIN preaches but does not always practice—for he patronized the Oregon Dispensary and used our medicines to cure his hands that caught those large Salmon. Since his lectures on DOCTORS and DAME SHORE, we have had an unprecedented run for our numerous remedies, toilet articles, etc., etc. It has been said that Mr. Train was induced by us to deliver that lecture, but we assure our numerous patrons that we do not use such means to obtain patronage. We do the largest trade because our Druggists are the most competent and our medicines and goods are fresh, pure and cheap.

Sandford, Insurance Commissioner of Massachusetts, in his Report for 1868, speaking of Dividends in Life Insurance Companies, says: "The sooner such guarantees cease to be made, and such expectations created, the sooner Life Insurance will come to rest on its true motive, and men insure their lives for security, and not for dividends. The best and most popular companies will then be those that promise only equity, and render all that they promise, and furnish the best security, with the most upright and judicious management."

By the Stock plan, the full cash effect of the Premium is immediately secured to the Insured, the Company taking ALL the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in Insurance of the Premium paid, is not secured to the Policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself."

SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 17, 1869.

For Americans to Consider.

One of the European correspondents of the New York Times writes that "the meetings lately held in America for the purpose of promoting free-trade organization have rejoiced the hearts of many over here who have an ogle eye to material interests; not so much for the help it is lending to political civilization, as because it is the principal market for the product of Europe, is it valued." Here is something for Americans to consider. Foreign countries are rejoiced to see free trade advocated in America, because they want a market for their manufactures. This means that they want us to employ and pay for their labor and reject our own. It means that they desire us to give up our system of protecting labor at home and allow the poorly paid millions of Europe to compete with our own laboring classes. It means that our manufactories shall be closed, or that wages shall be reduced to the scanty sums paid in the crowded countries of Europe. Now that nation is governed by the highest philanthropy which takes best care of its own interests and its own people. No nation regulates its policy upon the broad ground of liberality and humanitarianism so as to help the other nations of the world. Every nation promotes its own self interest and cannot change its policy out of regard to the wishes of other nations. Its first duty is to its own people. Great Britain, France, Germany, Russia and all other foreign countries act exclusively on this principle. And the United States must act on this principle. Government exists for no other purpose than to protect rights and interests. Can it be supposed that Europe would be so deeply interested in our free trade agitation if she supposed that free trade would be the best policy for us as a nation and aid us most effectually in building up our prosperity? Do not the nations of Europe desire to see free trade adopted by this country so that they can profit by it? What other motive can they have for urging free trade in A[illegible]? We believe in building up American interests and American prosperity, and are satisfied that a large majority of our people are emphatically in favor of the same policy.

Classy by Zoon[illegible]

The Lon[illegible] says the startling announcement [illegible] the news from Victoria [illegible] following in growing from [illegible] bury. The paper holds that [illegible] San Juan Island the British have [illegible] the boundary treaty, and the "old 54 40 dispute is revived." It tells us that "the line of 54 40 [illegible] north of Vancouver Island, so that the forests and coal-fields situated thereon, the cities of Victoria and New W[illegible], the mouth of F[illegible] river and the entire Pacific coast from Behring's Straits to the Gulf of California belong to the United States, and we hereby announce our resolution to recognize no other claim."

In the [illegible] of the celebrated Jefferson Brick, here, certainly, is "a [illegible] to make the British lion put his tail betw[illegible] his legs and howl with any [illegible]. This [illegible] animal with [illegible] whose wars are rampant cruelty and [illegible] has been a scourge and a [illegible] to the world," is now bearded in his own habitation by the bold Columbian youth, and "the [illegible] circling above him[illegible]" has [illegible]

This resolve to date the news from Victoria as coming from Washington Territory is equal [illegible] the lamp of the immortal Pogram[illegible] to throwing down the gage to England and [illegible]ring our internal resources for the [illegible] war on the universe." Further [illegible]on's Queen Victoria "shake in her royal shoes" on beholding this terrible [illegible] she isn't a virgin in these free United [illegible] so fired and nipped and frizzled to a [illegible] as that critter will be in her [illegible]. Look out at the Tower of London when she [illegible] this double extra [illegible] of the Washington Gazette!

The [illegible] of it [illegible] says—

[illegible] the lion then to start the hare.

Here is no doubt the resolve of our neighbor to maintain that Victoria is in Washington Territory, and his determination to recognize no other claim. But even on this may be it is certain that England has now seen something of the eloquential aspect of our country and is [illegible] with small!"

American [illegible].

Much has been said on the supposed fact that our tariff system is destructive to American shipping. But an examination of the case shows that this assumption is not correct. From 1860 to 1864 the aggregate tonnage of American vessels engaged in foreign commerce was 2,903,437 tons. From 1865 to 1868, it now reads 2,724,424 tons, less by the figures at the beginning of the present year only 179,013 tons. Sometimes the diminution during the first mentioned period is attributed wholly to spoliations by rebel cruisers, but this is not correct, for the rebellion took so much tonnage as the Southern States had out of the computation, and took the carrying of cotton and other products from Northern ship-owners. There was an absolute shrinkage in the amount of material to be transported, and vast numbers of commercial vessels were sold to the Government. If the diminution is to be laid to the charge of the protective features of the tariff, how is the fact to be accounted for that though this tariff remains as stringent as at any former period the tonnage of the country engaged in foreign trade is nearly as large as ever before? A year hence it will surpass all former dimensions. It is therefore, absurd to say that Protection is unfriendly to Commerce. Under the most thoroughly protective tariff the country has ever had the imports surpass in value all former precedent; and even now the goods are so fraudulently invoiced as not to show the actual amount by forty or fifty per cent.

ELEGANT DESCRIPTION.—Beriah Brown is engaged in the untidy work of drawing a portrait of the Polk county Democracy. Considering that he is making war on nine-tenths of his party in that county, the following will certainly pass for a very good charcoal sketch:

To the extent that we have succeeded in drawing the yelp of the pack upon ourselves, we have saved the decent portion of the party in that county from an element of disturbance which has been a terror to them in all their local elections, and a cause of discord in every State Convention, and has been tolerated from a general disinclination that men have to war with nauseous animals, who when vanquished, have the means of covering their assailants with an unsavory odor. We have rarely met with a respectable Democrat from Polk county who has not deprecated that malign influence, but few had the courage to subject themselves to the blackguardism and foul odors of bad whisky which inevitably followed all open opposition. While the pack are engaged in yelping at us, it offers an opportunity to the honest citizens of the county to secure their hen roosts against their return.

In General.

A member of Congress advertises for sale in the columns of the New York Herald a nomination to West Point. It would seem that an improvement might be effected in the method of making these appointments. It certainly would be better to have them made on the principle of competitive examination.

It is evident that the Southern people are in earnest in their efforts to secure Chinese laborers. Speaking of the Convention of planters at Memphis, the Appeal of that city, an intense Democratic paper, says: "We want the Chinese, and hope there will be a full meeting of the planters of the surrounding country, the result of which ought to be steps for the introduction of 10,000 of them at once."

The Polk county paper has a leading article on Brick Pomeroy. It rejoices that he will soon visit Oregon, says a Committee of five has been appointed by the Democracy of Dallas "to invite and escort our redoubtable champion to our charming little burg," and exhorts its friends in Polk county "to be the first to do him honor and the last to forsake him or the principles we hold mutually dear." It must be charming for respectable members of the Democratic party to witness this toadyism to the notorious American blackguard!

Numerous correspondents of the Polk County Times are sharp after Beriah Brown. They say that any man who calls Brick Pomeroy a "blackguard," and characterizes Ben. Hayden as "dirty Ben.," is "not a man to be trusted as a Democratic editor and leader." It is strange that Democrats cannot understand Beriah. His opinions are exactly those of the most ultra radical and violent of his party; but he glozes, conceals and plays the hypocrite for the purpose of getting votes. He knows that his party can never succeed by any honest announcement of its principles, hence he relies on sophistry, dissimulation and falsehood. Why can't his party understand him?

"The rich are growing richer and the poor poorer," is the staple of lamentation with some croakers who are determined to send the country to ruin whether it is ready for that disaster or not. But the income returns of 1868 do not bear them out. Take, for instance, the city of New York, where the income tax payers have increased in the past year nearly three and a half per cent.; while the taxable income has increased twenty-four per cent. The number of tax payers in 1867 was 17,430, now it is 18,030; the income taxed was $68,045,862 in 1867, and is now $85,597,484; while the tax has increased nearly a million dollars. The average income of each tax payer in 1867 was $3,900; and now it is nearly $4,750.

An Important Matter.

The following letter from Commissioner Wilson of the General Land Office refers to matters of great importance and should receive the attention of all who are interested in the progress of Oregon. We hope county assessors and business men of all classes will assist in gathering such information as will enable a report to be made out in accordance with the request of the Commissioner. Information collected may be contributed to any one of the gentlemen composing the Committee announced elsewhere in our paper to-day:

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
GENERAL LAND OFFICE,
June 29, 1869.

To the President of the Board of Trade, Chamber of Commerce or Merchants' Exchange, Portland, Oregon—Sir: Permit me, in discharge of an incidental but important public duty, to trouble you for an expression of your views on the following points:

1st. What is the aggregate value of raw material annually produced in your State, in agriculture, mining, fishing, etc.?

2d. What is the annual aggregate of secondary values added to raw material by chemical and mechanical processes? In other words, what would remain after deducting from the entire annual product of manufacturing industry the cost of the raw material consumed?

3d. What is the aggregate annual profit of capital invested in merchandising or trade of all kinds?

4th. What is the aggregate annual profit of capital invested in banking, brokerage, insurance and all other branches of business dealing in money?

5th. What is the aggregate annual profit of capital loaned to the general and State Governments, to counties, towns and other municipal bodies?

6th. What is the annual aggregate profit of capital invested in public transportation including railroads, canals, canal boats, barges, stages, steamboats, &c.?

7th. What is the aggregate annual compensation of clerks, messengers, officers, sailors, conductors, engineers, laborers, &c., employed in trade, banking, transportation &c.?

8th. What is the aggregate annual income of lawyers, physicians, clergymen, teachers, artists, civil engineers and other professional men?

9th. What is the annual aggregate of wages paid to domestic servants of all kinds?

The object of these inquiries is to arrive at a satisfactory estimate of our national resources whether productive or exchange. For this purpose this correspondence has been opened with boards of trade and other commercial associations in different States and Territories. It is very desirable to induce the intelligent gentlemen at the head of these associations to give this matter some attention and to contribute their most reliable estimates under the heads above specified. It is proposed to embody the results of this correspondence in the annual report of this office for the year 1869, a copy of which will be sent to each board of trade in the Union. A general compliance with this request can not fail to elicit information of great value to the business interests of the country. May I then rely upon you for a reply to the above inquiries by the 1st of September next?

You will also confer a great favor by sending me a copy of your latest printed reports.

Very respectfully your obedient servant,
J. S. WILSON, Commissioner.

To the Chicago Committee of Commerce.

The following communication has been telegraphed by the Mayor of Portland to the Committee of the Chicago Chamber of Commerce, at San Francisco:

PORTLAND, July 16, 1869.

To the Committee of Commerce of Chicago, visiting the Pacific Coast:

GENTLEMEN:—On behalf of the citizens of this city, reflecting the sentiments of the people of this State, I invite you to visit Oregon and commune with our business men, who I know are most anxious to establish commercial relations with the Giant of the West. Oregon, differing from California, is no rival of Chicago, but rather invites a helping hand to assist us in developing the vast resources of our young State. We have been unfortunate in never having been known or properly understood by citizens abroad. California has absorbed and overshadowed everything on this coast, and in consequence we have lost our identity, she obtaining credit for our agricultural and mineral productions. Without envying our more developed and forecasted sister her merited position in the commercial world, we bespeak a visit from you, and invite an interchange of ideas with our business men which will result in mutual benefit to Oregon and Chicago.

GEN. ROSECRANS.—An exchange says "his career as a Democrat begins with his failure at Chickamauga, grows higher with his opposition to reconstruction, and expands into its full glory as he confers with Robert E. Lee to learn what terms of reconstruction Congress could adopt which would be satisfactory to paroled rebels."

EX-President Johnson had great difficulty to being allowed to register at Greenville, Tennessee. He was pronounced "disloyal" by a high minded officer of the election.

DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.

DATES TO JULY 15.

Washington News.

NEW YORK, July 15.—The Herald's Washington dispatch says that with the exception of the opinion of Attorney General Hoar and the letters addressed to the French and British Ministers by Secretary Fish, no action will be taken by Government to prevent the landing of the French cable on the coast of Massachusetts.

A Washington special says that Minister Washburne, in a note to the Secretary of the Interior, asks official information of what was done by Congress concerning the Memphis and El Paso Railroad, parties being in France raising and making certain statements about the road, which caused capitalists to ask what the facts were. Secretary Cox replied that Congress had done nothing, not even to give the right of way.

Political Gossip.

CHICAGO, July 15.—The Republican's special says that at a cabinet meeting yesterday, Secretary Boutwell took a decided stand in favor of vigorous efforts by the Administration for the Republicans in Mississippi and Texas. He thought none but organizations which sent delegates to Chicago, are entitled to admission as Republicans. He considered that Democrats and rebels would take advantage of an undemonstrative course on the part of the Administration and override the Union men and freedmen. He feared the 15th Amendment would not be ratified by Texas or Mississippi unless the radicals succeeded. Judge Dent, who accepted the nomination for Governor of Mississippi, will be compelled to sustain himself without aid from the Administration. Judge Dent called on Secretary Boutwell for the purpose of securing the patronage of the Treasury Department to aid him in the canvass. Secretary Boutwell, with the utmost courtesy, informed him that his request could not be granted, adding that appointments had been given to persons whose loyalty to the platform upon which Grant was elected is undoubted. It is rumored and generally believed that this blunt declaration was followed by high words, during which Judge Dent claimed he was as loyal to the Administration as Boutwell. The result of the interview was the withdrawal of the Judge from the Secretary's presence in a great rage. Boutwell's parting remark was an admonition to him to mind his own business, accompanied by a declaration that he was able to control his Department without the assistance of outsiders, and that so long as he remained in control its influence will be exerted in behalf of a true Republican organization.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—The President issued a proclamation designating the 13th of Nov. as the time for submitting the Constitution adopted by the Convention, which was to meet at Austin, Texas, on the 15th, to the voters of said State registered at the time of such submission.

Bowdoin College.

BRUNSWICK, Me., July 15.—At the commencement exercises of Bowdoin College to day the graduating class numbered thirty-one. The degree of D. D. was conferred on Horatio Stebbins, of San Francisco.

New York News.

NEW YORK, July 15.—It is stated that six fatal cases of cholera occurred in this city this week, brought from Cuba.

CHICAGO, July 15.—The New York special of the Tribune says it is understood that thirteen prominent bankers have been indicted for violation of the United States revenue law. Probably many more will be indicted. Several bank Presidents have ordered their cashiers not to loan money above the legal rate until these cases are decided.

The quarrel over the Toledo, Wabash and Western Railroad promises to be as severe as the Erie. Parties who purchased a majority of the stock, recently, in order to secure the control of the October election, authorized an increase of $4,000,000 to the capital stock, which neutralized the purchase by the Erie. An injunction has been issued, restraining this increase. The President and some of the Directors have been arrested for contempt in not obeying the injunction. Judge Barnard has appointed a receiver, but the books and papers have been sent West.

Several parties have begun an air ship, something like the Californian, one for the purpose of crossing the Atlantic in fifteen hours.

Work is being rapidly pushed on the new railroad to Boston.

Detectives recently captured two notorious counterfeiters, near Madison, Wisconsin, and seized a large quantity of bank notes, plates, dies and presses. The detectives are on the track of the rest of the gang. The arrests and seizures are said to be the most important made for a number of years.

Miscellaneous.

HUNTINGTON, Pa., July 15.—Henry P. Blow, Minister to Brazil, starts for New York to-morrow, whence he will sail to Rio. He will be the recipient of a private banquet at the Planter's House to-night.

The change of gauge on the Missouri Pacific railroad will be commenced Sunday next and completed in three days.

Several sleeping cars of the St. Louis and Terre Haute railroad were brought across the river to-day, and will be sent to Kansas for the purpose of bringing home the wounded members of the excursion party, near Lawrence, Kansas.

MEMPHIS, July 15.—The Mississippi Valley Immigration Company was organized in the labor convention to-day. Forty thousand dollars were subscribed on the spot. Commissioners were appointed to open subscriptions in Kentucky, Mississippi and Arkansas.

Governor Clayton, of Arkansas, reports that $125,000 in bonds, voted by the State to the Little Rock railroad, will shortly be turned over to the officers of the road, the iron being received and large shipments being on the road. The work is progressing finely.

PROVIDENCE, July 15.—Jenkins Harris, landlord of a hotel in this city, hung himself to-day.

NEW YORK, July 15.—It is said that Sanford, defaulting cashier of the Central National Bank, left Boston for Europe last week.

Six gunboats are fitting rapidly in the Navy Yard for immediate use.

The survey for the East river bridge has been completed. The materials are being prepared for the abutments on the river shore.

Eleven indictments have been found by the Grand Jury against prominent bankers and brokers for violation of the usury laws. Arrests will probably be made to morrow.

District Attorney Pierrepont has been authorized by the President to call out the military and naval forces here to prevent the departure of the Cuban expeditions said to be about ready to leave, and has taken measures with the naval officers and military in forts to obey his instructions.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

LONDON, July 15.—The retirement of M. Rouher from the Ministry is now definitely settled. Lavalette, Baroche and Gresier will probably follow him.

M. Darvigue is named as the successor of Lavalette in the ministry of Foreign Affairs.

It is generally understood that Magne will be Minister of Finance; De Forcade La Roulte, Minister of Public Works; Admiral Rigault De Neilly, Minister of Marine. Marshal Niel, Minister of War, will retain his portfolio. Louvet Valdecome De L'huys and De Talhaunt are prominently spoken of as candidates for the vacant seats in the Cabinet. Emile Olivier positively declined a ministrate appointment.

M. Rouher has been offered the Presidency of the Senate.

Marquis Lavalette will be appointed Minister to the Court of St James.

There was a scene in the Corps Legislatif yesterday when the prorogation of the session was announced. Jules Favre arose and did cries of order, and protested against the suspension of the sitting as a contradiction of the Emperor's message. His words were received with a storm of cheers by the members of the "Left." Schneider, President of the Chamber, having restored order, expressed astonishment that on the eve of a great liberal act such a protest should be raised. It was not only contrary to the regulations of the House, but against the sentiments of the country. He then declared the session prorogued and the members left the Hall.

NEW YORK, July 15.—A special to the Herald says there is reliable authority for stating that the offer of globes to the Catholic priesthood will be respectfully declined by the church on the grounds first, that it is opposed to the discipline of the church; second, that the proposition is unfair and insufficient as just equalization between the religious communities of Ireland considering the disproportion of numbers, even if it were admissable under church regulations.

ST. PIERRE, Miquelon, July 14.—The ocean cable was spliced to the shore end to day by the steamer Wm. Corry. The cause of the failure of the splice yesterday was that the shore end was lost. The buoy was easily found, but when taken up it was found that the cable was detached, therefore it was necessary to grapple for it directly. The splice was made, after which instruments and a full staff of operatives were sent on shore, and communication was opened with Brest. The commander of the Great Eastern brought with him a sealed message prepared by the Emperor Napoleon, the purport of which is to remain unknown until opened on this side of the Atlantic, upon the completion of the cable, when the message is to be sent to the Emperor in order that he might then judge of the accuracy of the transmission. The message was sent to-day.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 16.—The Chicago commercial party arrived here on the Sacramento boat last night. They are all stopping at the Cosmopolitan Hotel. At 1 o'clock to-day there was a meeting of the merchants and other citizens at the Chamber of Commerce to welcome them. J. W. Show, President, on behalf of the Chamber, welcomed them to California and the Pacific coast. A general introduction then took place, after which Ex Gov. Oglesby, of Chicago, addressed the meeting and was followed by Hon. N. B. Judd, Mr. Richards, President of the Chicago Board of Trade, Ex Congressman, H. W. Arnold and others.

A fire occurred in a house on Waverly Place today at 11 o'clock, but was soon extinguished. A negro, John Hamilton, employed in the house, assaulted Fire Marshal Durkee while in the discharge of his duties and was immediately arrested.

George Watt was arrested last night charged with stealing meat from the slaughter house in Butchertown.

Two young ladies had corrosive sublimate thrown upon them at Anna Dickinson's lecture last night by some unknown parties, ruining their clothes.

A young man named August Wellings, residing on Powell street, fell down a flight of stairs yesterday evening, driving an open knife into his abdomen, inflicting a dangerous wound.

Mitchell, who was arrested for cruelly beating a horse, forfeited fifty dollars bail to day rather than appear for trial.

At a meeting of the Fruit Growers and Dealers' Association, to day, the committee appointed to confer with the railroad companies, reported that the Company would send two cars to New York loaded with fruit—one a freight and the other a passenger car—at four cents per pound in coin. On motion, it was decided to send an experimental car next Friday.

W. R. Briggs, W. C. Ware and Thomas Young, were arrested last evening for gambling. Lawrence Connolly, as complainant.

VIRGINIA, July 16.—The Gold Hill News says the principal cause of the depression in mining stocks is in the unfortunate condition of the Crown Point, Kentuck and Yellow Jacket mines. In reviewing the whole, however, it has exceedingly good hopes in the future.

The candles used in the Chollar mine for one year cost $4,737 47.

A death from small pox is reported at Gold Hill to-day.

The Gould & Curry mine have repaired damages and are running again as usual.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

JACKSONVILLE, July 16.—A man named Morton was shot and killed below Vannoy's ferry, in this county, on Tuesday last, by an Indian called "Umpqua Joe." The Indian was drunk at the time. The murderer is a civilized Indian and was with the Fremont exploring expedition. He and a man named Tom Eastman had been arrested for the crime.

OREGON.

D. P. Thompson, with a surveying party, is at work near the head of John Day Valley.

The Canyon City Journal says that some Indians from the Umatilla Reservation have been at that place and stolen ten head of horses, which they took to Elk creek and pawned for $35.

A ditch has been dug to convey water from Wood river into Mill creek, which enters the Columbia at the Dalles. A supply of water will thus be secured for the mills at that place. Water will be turned into the ditch at once.

The particulars of the homicide at La Grande, on the 12th, are as follows. George Reed came from the valley into the town, and met Mat. Rice. Rice accosted Reed, saying, "you have been cutting hay on my ranch." Reed replied, "the ranch is my own." It appears that both parties had lived on the same land. Rice called Reed hard names, placing both hands in his pockets, saying he would cut Reed's throat from ear to ear. Reed retreated into a butcher shop, and warned Rice not to follow. Rice did not heed the warning, but followed till Reed went behind the butchers' block, when Reed drew his pistol and shot Rice about an inch below the heart. Rice lived about an hour. Reed gave himself up to the authorities, and will have his trial to morrow. Rice leaves a wife and several children.

THE WEST.

Crops in the lower Payette valley have escaped the ravages of grasshoppers.

Measures are being taken at Boise City to erect buildings, enclosures, etc., for an agricultural fair.

Colonel Jones, Superintendent of Indian Affairs for Idaho, arrived at Boise City on the 12th inst.

The New York World says: "George Francis Train has gone to Oregon, where he will hear no sound save his own splashing."

The next steamer to China will be the Oregonian, which will sail on the 4th of August. She is a new steamer and will be used as a spare ship in the China waters.

The Los Angeles News says: We understand that a gentleman is about to start a coffee plantation in this locality. He has received two bags of coffee in the shell, which he intends to plant.

A man named Porter shot and killed without provocation at Idaho City, on the 4th of July, a man named Hans P. Hanson, and dangerously wounded a man named John Moore. Porter was arrested.

ENDORSEMENTS.

OLYMPIA, W. T., March 27, 1869.

C. A. WHITE, Esq.—Dear Sir: Having examined your original map, embracing that portion of Washington Territory west of the Cascade Range, I desire to add my testimony to its value. Having been engaged for a number of years in the surveys from Cape Flattery to the Head of Puget Sound, I have examined this portion of your map more critically than others, and I take pleasure in vouching for its general correctness.

This map will fill a want that has long been felt, not only among the residents of this Territory, but others, who are desirous of obtaining information of this portion of the "Far West," and I trust that we shall soon see it in a form suitable for general distribution.

JAS. S. LAWSON,
Asst. U. S. C. S.

We endorse the annexed opinion of Jas. S. Lawson, Esq., and will add that Mr. Chas. A. White is a practical surveyor, and has had access to the township maps in the two Land Offices in this Territory, as also the Coast Survey charts; and we can vouch for his map of Washington Territory, west of the Cascade Range of Mountains, as being correct, and the only good map of the same territory that has been made.

HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!

W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive

Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.

He respectfully refers to the following

CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by E. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.

It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.

It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

Agricultural Topics.

[London Correspondence New York Times.]

I copy for the benefit of the Farmers' Club, the reports of whose proceedings I have noted with constant and increasing interest, the following statement of Mr. Mechi, probably the most thorough, practical and scientific agriculturist in England. Mr. Mechi says:

"Fifty-five acres of my wheat sown with one bushel per imperial acre are amply luxuriant, and some portion has required flagging. The half bushel per acre is also ample in point, and even the peck an acre promises to yield abundantly. Two bushels of oats per acre and six pecks of barley are almost too thick, some of the latter requiring flagging. One bushel per acre each of oats and barley appears to be all sufficient. High farming and deep cultivation absolutely demand a great reduction from the old quantities of seed sown."

Now if a peck of seed an acre is not only sufficient but better than the usual quantity, what an enormous waste in the usual fashion of sowing millions of acres! It is said that the saving of wheat by making aerated instead of fermented bread would be equal to the entire importation of wheat into this country. However it may be, I am satisfied that all grains are wastefully planted.

And now, as America is the country of great and daring enterprises, I have one to propose to the agriculturalists and capitalists of New York and Brooklyn. It is simply to pump the sewerage of the two cities into a reservoir of sufficient heighth, and distribute it over the whole southern slope of Long Island. To do this it will be necessary to have two sets of sewage pipes, one to carry off merely waste water and rainfall, the other sewage proper, containing the richest materials for vegetable growth. In England, where there is generally too much rain, even the diluted sewage of towns has produced grass to the extent of some ninety tons an acre per annum. This grass has been known to grow as much a day, equal to half a ton an acre, and this without exhausting the manure of the sewage. With such an arrangement, Long Island would truly be the garden of New York, and drought would be impossible. With sewage Indian corn can be grown in England—at least it did grow last summer, under this stimulus, at the rate of three inches every twenty-four hours for thirty-three successive days, the ears produced being larger and firmer than the seed corn obtained from America. Here is a mine of gold, wealth, work and plenty for thousands. What is wanted is a good engineer, plenty of capital and good management. Sunshine will do the rest.

A REMARKABLE AUCTION SALE.—The London papers contain reports of the sale of the living of the rectory and vicarage of Westborough, with that of Dry Doddington, in the county and diocese of Lincoln. The auctioneer said the living presented especial advantages to gentlemen who had sons who were about to take holy orders in the church, for it was worth £405 per annum. Even if a curate was paid a handsome salary to assist say £100 a year—it would leave £300 a year for the rector, and his duties would be very light indeed. It was a very pleasant part of the country near Newark, there was plenty of good society. There was a rectory house fit for a gentleman's family, and there would be no difficulty in obtaining the income, for the property from which it was derived was held by six tenants and all the rector had to do was to request them to call and pay their rents. If the living were in actual possession he calculated that it would be £10,000, but it was not in actual possession—the present rector being 73 years of age—there would be a vacancy before long. Under these circumstances he was open to a bid. Would any gentleman say about £5,000? After a pause some one offered £4,000; this was followed very slowly by £4,100, £4,200, up to £4,800, when the bidding came to a dead lock. Mr Driver then announced that the biddings had not reached the price which had been reserved by the vendors.

THE BRAINS OF BIRDS.—A writer in the last North American Review shows that the higher brutes have not only self-consciousness, but memory, imagination, judgment and the power of drawing inferences and forming general notions—at least to the limited extent in which the power is possessed by the lowest races of men. They possess the feeling of love, hate, hope, fear, pride, shame and sympathy; some of the most educated, as the dog, have at least a rudimentary notion of right and wrong. To a certain extent nearly all vertebrates learn by experience. Had the author taken Mr. Bain's discoveries as his starting point he might have given his paper greater scientific completeness by showing that, as all our strictly intellectual processes may be reduced to the three primordial faculties of memory, perception of agreement and perception of differences, so these fundamental powers may be traced through the brute creation, but with a complexity and perfection which steadily decreases as we descend the scale.

There is, on the north shore of Lake Superior, fifty miles from Duluth, Minn., a flourishing private colony known as Beaver Bay. The people consist of five brothers, Wieland by name, and two other Germans, and their families, and were sent to this wilderness in 1816, by some speculators, who failed in 1857, and left them to shift for themselves. They have about 3,000 acres of pine land, a saw mill, 50 acres of cultivated land, a 50-ton schooner, and considerable other valuable property. Labor is divided among them so that almost all the trades and professions are represented, each one setting it two or three days in their grist mill they ground last winter 2500 bushels of wheat, and have now on hand 700,000 feet of logs.

GENERAL NEWS ITEMS.

The widow of Gen. Worth died at St. Augustine, Florida, on the 21st June.

The New York City Directory, just issued, contains 189,143 names, being an increase of 5,692 over the year 1868.

Connecticut is earnestly considering whether it shall have a single capital. Hartford has been recommended as the capital by the Legislative Committee.

Canadian papers are relating with gusto the hardships endured by some of the Dominion people who have emigrated to the Western States in the hope of bettering their condition, and after a fair trial have abandoned sterile Illinois for fertile Canada.

The M. E. Church South includes 30 conferences, nine Bishops, ninety-three regular preachers, and over four thousand local preachers, with 472,434 white and 54,172 colored members. The white membership has decreased 31,112, and the colored shows an increase of 22,087 during the past year.

A number of Georgia land owners are trying to raise capital in New York for working some quartz mines, which they claim to have discovered down there, and represent to be very rich. It is doubtful if they succeed, as the New York capitalists all fight shy of mining since their unfortunate experience with Nevada three or four years ago.

The united singing societies on this continent, composed of music-loving Germans, and organized as the North American Saengerbund, will hold a great singing festival in Cincinnati next summer, similar to the one held in Chicago last year. The festival will occupy an entire week, and will consist of a series of mammoth concerts, out-door amusements, and excursions by rail and river.

It is estimated that the annual loss of railroad iron by wear and tear in the United States, would be sufficient to build a complete new line from New York to San Francisco. Our system of building railroads with cheap materials is thus demonstrated to be very poor economy in the long run. European rails cost three times as much per mile as American, but they last nearly three times as long.

The famous Longworth wine cellar and the Longworth wine house in Cincinnati, have been "closed out." The sale has been going on for nearly a year. A paper of that city says the fact is significant to consumers as well as dealers, especially as the right to use the Longworth brand is reserved by, or rather dies with the interest of the estate of the late Nicholas Longworth, in the stock of wines just sold out.

By a royal decree of the 25th of February last, the abolition of slavery was declared in all the Portuguese colonies. All slaves are to be considered free and in a condition similar to that of Chinese laborers, who by their own act have bound themselves to labor in the English and French colonies. This is to be their condition until April 29th, 1878, when in accordance with the decree of April 29, 1858, they will be entitled to all the rights and privileges of Portuguese citizens, and all engagements and contracts which may have been made by them in their former condition will thenceforth be null and void.

The New York Tribune has its own ideas about the Georgia decision prohibiting social equality between whites and negroes in the marriage relation. If the Supreme Court of Georgia, it says, "instead of holding relations between white men and black women to be entirely illegal, should declare them, on the contrary, legal and binding, they would do more to prevent amalgamation than by a thousand such decisions as they have given. Let those who choose black women for the mothers of their children be held to a legal responsibility for the connection and its consequences, and we shall perceive a sudden check to the bleaching process."

Alexander H. Stephens, of Georgia, has written a letter touching the question of the eligibility of the negro members of the State Legislature, and the weight to which the late decision of the Supreme Court of the State is entitled with the General Assembly. He says he believes that the decision of the Court, affirming the eligibility of negroes to office in Georgia, to be in accordance with the law and the Constitution, and he doubts not that, had he been on the bench, he should have come to the same conclusion, though not exactly by the same process of reasoning. He says, moreover, that he thought the two Houses committed an error in deciding that the negro members were disqualified to hold office.

A PRACTICE OF THE CHIVALRY.—A Southern correspondent, who is evidently of a free-and-easy turn himself, thus describes a disgusting amusement of the "chivalry" in former times: This amusement in old times, that is, before the war, back probably to colonial days, was of general popularity all about in spots through the entire South. It was performed somewhat in this wise: Two or three idle young men, in a dearth of excitement, would begin to "wonder how a gander jerk would take?" "Bully!" So number two, if he happened to be of the enthusiastic kind." "Well, let's think it over," number three would say, if he happened to be of a reflective turn. At any rate, after more or less noisy incubation of the thought, it would hatch an event. At some place where plenty of good riding space could be obtained, and which might be from within three to four miles of the village in which the above conversation took place, the participants in the pulling would assemble. A gander would be brought along, an old and tough one, and sometimes two, three or more, according to the extent or desired protraction of the fun. Greasing the bird's neck with lard or some other oleaginous substance, his feet would be firmly tied to a swinging limb twelve or fifteen feet above the ground. The riders, arranging themselves in single file at the starting point, at the word of command would dash away at full speed, and when under the gander endeavor to grasp its head and pull it off. This is a feat much more difficult than many would suppose. In the first place it takes a pretty good rider to catch a dangling rope on a gallop, and it is more and more difficult in proportion to the animation and crookedness of the material grasped at. An old gander that has frequently witnessed this fun learns to make the getting of his head into chancery a work of the extremest dexterity. It is very seldom, however, that the head disperses before the fowl is decapitated. It is creditable to the chivalry of the country that the same bird is not allowed to be pulled twice.

WHO PROJECTED THE PACIFIC RAILROAD?—Col. B. L. E. Bonneville, of the United States army, in a letter to the St. Louis Democrat, under date of June 8th, says: "I observe in your paper of June 4th, fourth page, that the paternity of the Pacific Railroad is claimed by certain individuals. I desire to say that in June or July, 1831, I was at Jefferson barracks, near St. Louis, and reading as the guest of Major General Gaines, of the United States army, and that he told me that he had forwarded a paper from Gen. Leavenworth, United States army, recommending the building of a railroad to the Pacific, and that he had forwarded the same to the War Department, Washington City, endorsed as follows: 'I forward to you the magnificent project of Gen. Leavenworth.' Of course, this paper must be in the office of the Adjutant General of the War Department, and it may be revised and published, in justice to a meretorious officer, and to compare the rude ideas of the early friends of that great and grand scheme."

Hon. John Covode has been selected as Chairman of the Pennsylvania Republican State Central Committee, and will devote the whole of his time to the duties of the position. The headquarters of the Committee will be established in Philadelphia.

The Baltimore Commercial was sold at auction January 27th for $4 200, the purchasers being the Democratic Association. Subsequently the property was transferred to Mrs. Tuttle and Mr. N. Tyler.

Dialogue between Train and the Reporter for the "British Columbian."

George Francis Train has passed the meridian of life: stands 5 feet 10 inches; stout built; complexion slightly sallow; expression frank and open; serious but pleasing; never smiles; clear voice and great conversational powers; language good and free from vulgar slang; monopolizing in conversation, a much better talker than listener; an unmitigated egotist, but profoundly sincere, seemingly, in all he says.

The following conversation took place between Mr. Train and our Reporter:

Reporter—How do you like the appearance of our Colony?

Train—A fine country, but evidently falling into decay commercially. You must give up your national prejudices and join the only country that can give you prosperity. The union of British Columbia with the United States is inevitable, hemmed in as it is between Alaska and Washington Territory; but peaceable union is much better than a forced one.

Reporter—But you don't imagine such a contingency imminent, or at all likely to occur?

Train—Certainly; and were not the people of the United States the greatest cowards in the world, British Columbia, and, in fact, the whole of British America would have belonged to them before this.

Reporter—Do you then think the people of the United States cowardly?

Train—As a nation, the most cowardly on the face of the earth. No other nation would allow a subject to be imprisoned by a foreign nation without just cause.

Reporter—Are you not a little wild in your ideas as regards these national matters, in which you appear so deeply interested?

Train—No, sir, I am not; I am certain that every view I entertain is right, and every scheme I undertake will be accomplished. I am certain that I will be President of the United States in 1872.

(Mr. Train then spoke of the changes he would inaugurate when he became President; how he would sweep away the national debt, and demoralization permeating every department under the present oligarchy.)

Reporter—But you will be constructed and governed by the Constitution, and cannot act as you please, and on your own authority?

Train—The Constitution of the United States is a myth, and has been obstructive, and will be no obstacle to me.

Reporter—But how can you—as a nation like the United States to allow their Chief Magistrate to trample upon the Constitution, and rule them with 1st Napoleon power?

Train—The people like to be ruled. A man born to rule can do pretty much as he likes. I was born to rule; and I shall rule more peoples than one!

Reporter—The last President of the United States tried his hand at overriding the Constitution and failed.

Train—The answer is simple; Andrew Johnson was not George Francis Train!

Reporter—Still, I am not prepared to believe that a great republican people, like the United States, would submit all at once to be ruled despotically by one man.

Train—I cannot help your thoughts, but Geo. Francis Train never fails in anything he undertakes.

(Mr. Train then spoke of his success in life over since he started in life).

Reporter—It has been charged against you that you have a monomaniacal feeling in doing what you do, through the country?

Train—It is not so; and in
